

“Human Sexuality and the UMC” Survey Results

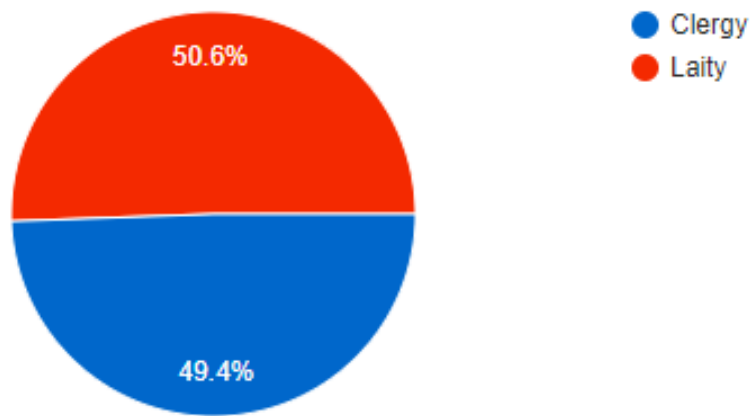

August 2020

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLScvJigcQZpY_ZtT5mN9UwCzVry6BBbQVTwOzf85cKaRAYDFPA/viewanalytics

Basic Information

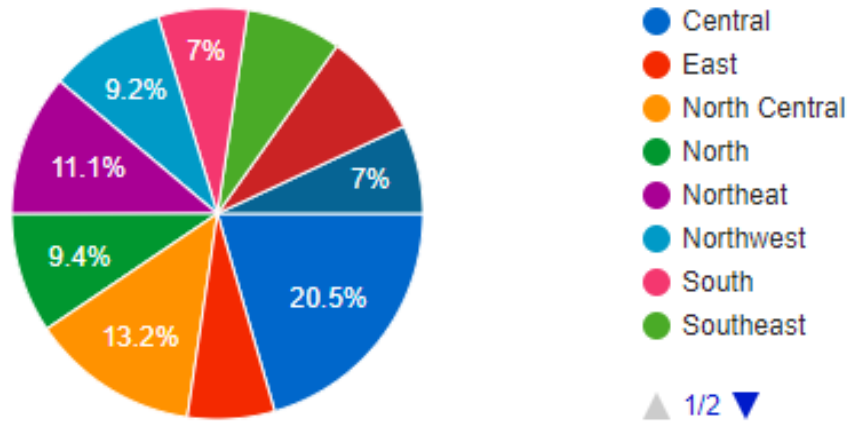

1,507 responses

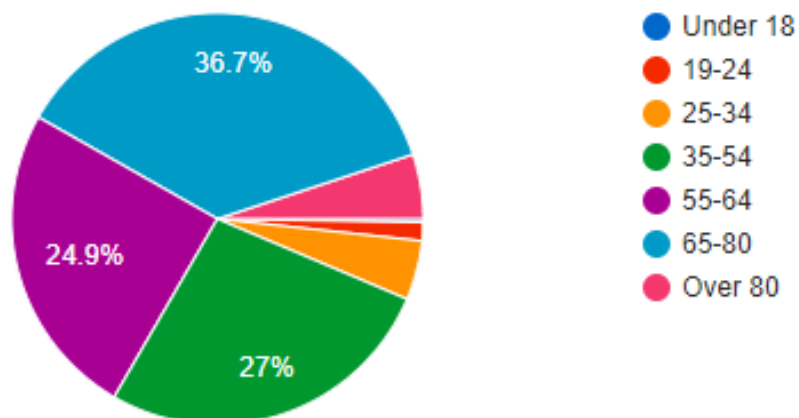

District

1,507 responses

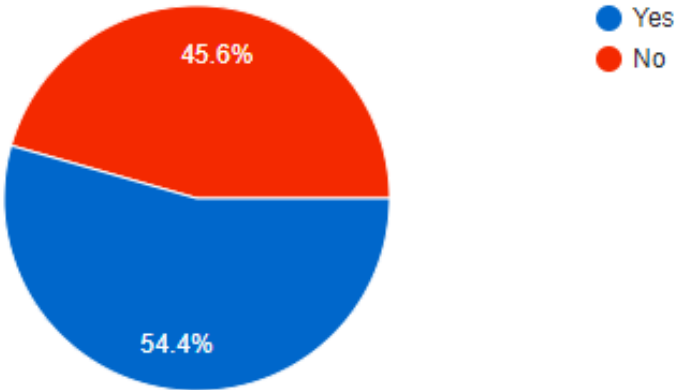

Age

1,460 responses

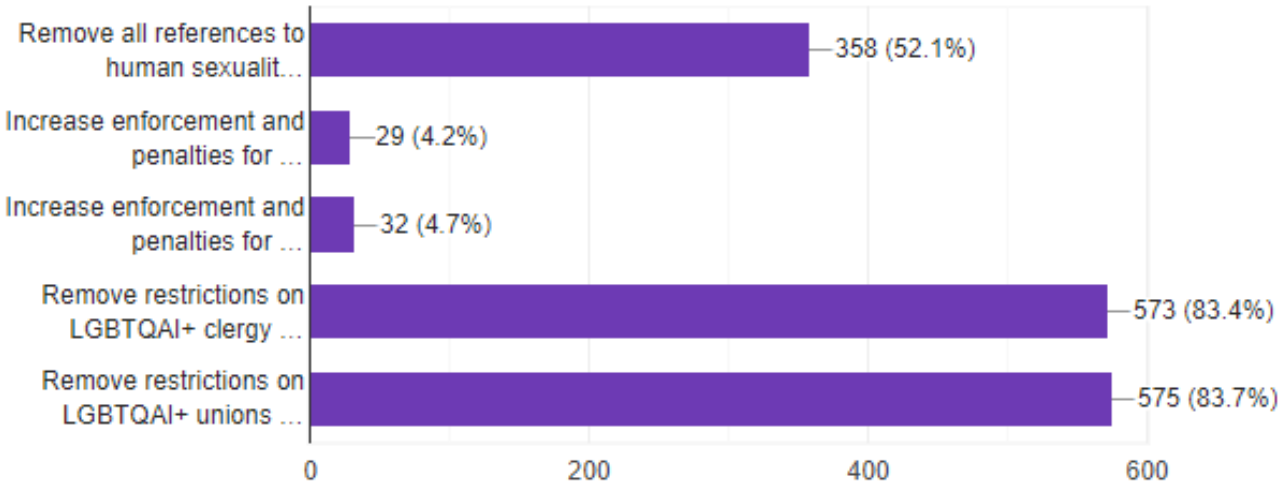

I support the denomination's current position on human sexuality.

1,507 responses

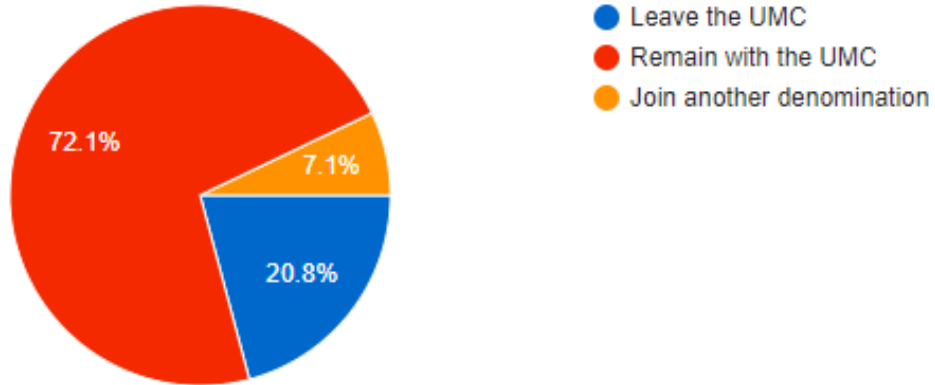

You do not support the denomination's current position on human sexuality. What would you like to see changed:

687 responses

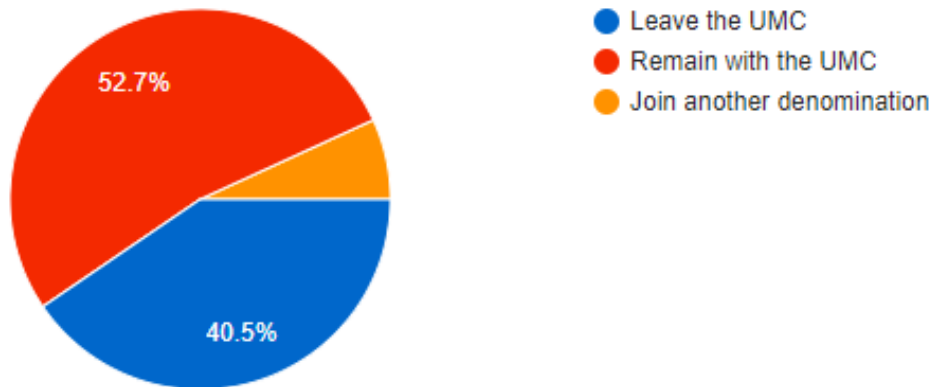

If the current UMC position remains unchanged, I am likely to:

1,507 responses

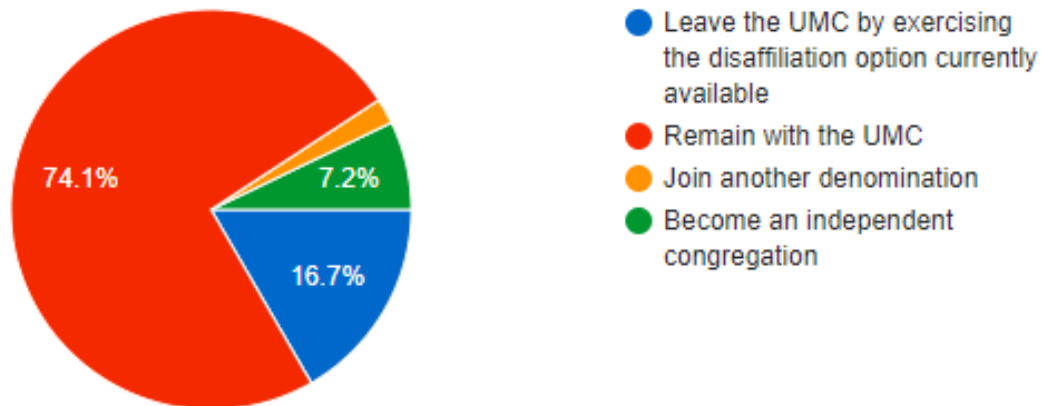

If the UMC allows ordination and/or marriage for LGBTQAI+ persons, I am likely to:

1,507 responses

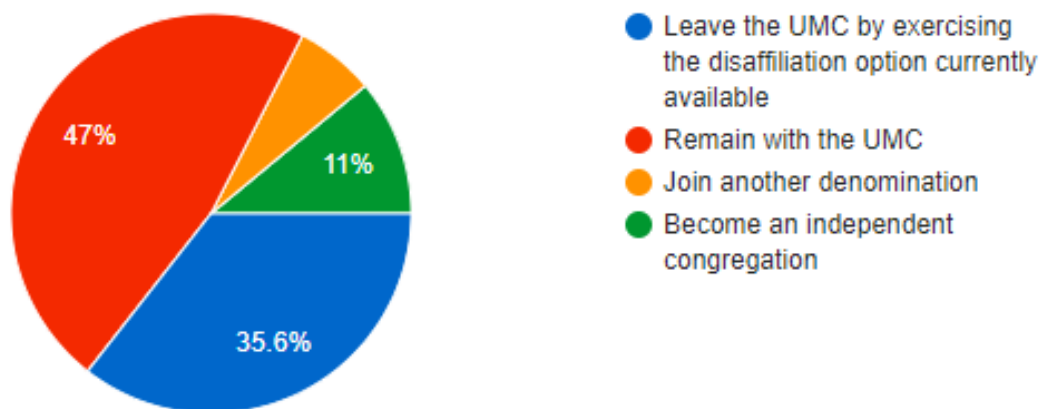

If the current UMC position remains unchanged, my church is likely to:

1,507 responses

If the UMC allows ordination and/or marriage for LGBTQAI+ persons, my church is likely to:

1,507 responses

The full text of the further question and options asked ONLY of survey respondents who said that they do NOT support the denomination's current position on human sexuality:

The screenshot shows a Google Form titled "Human Sexuality and the UMC" with a red asterisk indicating a required question. The question text is: "You do not support the denomination's current position on human sexuality. What would you like to see changed: *". Below the question are five checkboxes with the following options:

- Remove all references to human sexuality in Book of Discipline
- Increase enforcement and penalties for clergy violation of BOD restrictions regarding personal practice of homosexuality
- Increase enforcement and penalties for clergy violation of BOD restrictions regarding presiding over unions of same-gender couples
- Remove restrictions on LGBTQAI+ clergy ordination
- Remove restrictions on LGBTQAI+ unions performed by clergy in UM churches

At the bottom of the form are "Back" and "Next" buttons. Below the form, it says "This form was created inside of The Indiana Conference - United Methodist Church. Report Abuse". The Google Forms logo is at the bottom center. The Windows taskbar is visible at the very bottom of the image.